

TRAVEL SAFETY CHECKLIST

Done	Before you travel to Cape Town, South Africa ask yourself the following:
	Have you checked your government's foreign travel advice?
	Have you checked South Africa's entry requirements?
	Do you have the correct visas?
	Is your passport valid?
	Have you made a note of South Africa's emergency numbers?
	Do you have travel insurance? Does your insurance cover activities you want to do?
	Does someone at home know your rough itinerary?
	Leave a copy of your passport with a loved one. Put a copy of your passport in your suitcase.
	Do you know where the nearest embassy or consulate is to where you're staying?
	Do you have different forms of money? (e.g. cash and credit card)
	If required, have you contacted your doctor about managing any pre-existing medical conditions?
	Do you have enough medical supplies for the trip and any delays?
	Have you shared the 'run, hide, tell' advice with anyone you're travelling with? A simple technique used in the event of a firearms or weapons attack.
	What's your airline's policy with natural disasters?
	Planning to drive? Make sure you have a valid, recognised licence. Are you aware of local driving rules?
	Have you found out about local rules, customs and dress?
